Suitcases open flat.
The room floor stays clear.

LiftCase is a motorised platform mounted on the ceiling above the bed. Guests place their open suitcase on it, and it stays accessible at 180° throughout the stay. They lower it when needed, then raise it again in 10 to 15 seconds.

10–15 s
to lower or raise the platform

For hoteliers

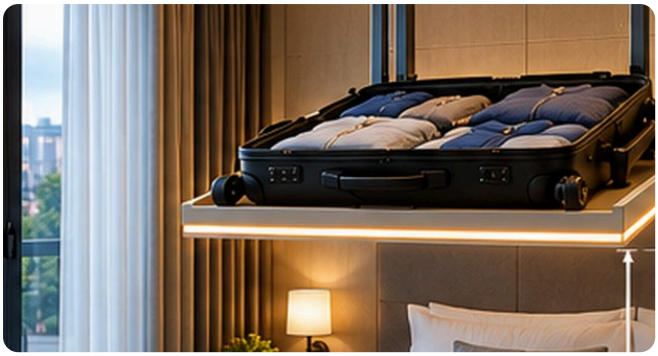

- A more spacious room, with no luggage on the floor or bed
- More usable space without moving walls
- A distinctive guest experience, visible on arrival
- Less wear on furniture (luggage racks, bedspreads, floors)

How it works

1 Ceiling closed and discreet
2 Platform lowers
3 In use during the stay
4 Platform rises
5 Ceiling closed

Two configurations

Solo

One suitcase open flat. Single and business rooms.

Duo

Two suitcases side by side. Double and family rooms.

Safety: a redundant system

- Motorised main suspension (rails with worm drive or chains)
- Independent safety cables that hold the platform if a component fails
- Automatic mechanical brake in case of power failure
- Obstacle sensors at top and bottom
- Emergency stop, by button and by app

Room integration

Recessed version: New build or major renovation. Invisible when closed.

Surface-mounted version: Existing ceiling, no structural work. A discreet housing above the bed.

LiftCase Connect option

A smart in-room screen: room service, spa, taxi booking, weather, front-desk contact. It is AI-powered and also controls the platform.

Pilot hotel programme

We are looking for a few properties in France and across Europe to test LiftCase in real conditions, in one or several rooms. Pilot hotels take part in fine-tuning the product.
